Our Vision

At Branwell, our vision is to cultivate wisdom that elevates humanity.

We believe that meaningful transformation starts within—and when individuals are supported with clarity and insight, their growth can positively impact families, communities, and the broader world. Our vision is centred on creating a future where intuitive guidance is valued as a vital tool for conscious living, personal empowerment, and collective harmony.

Our Mission

Our mission is to support personal growth, healing, and self-awareness through accurate, ethical, and insightful intuitive services.

We are dedicated to providing a professional platform where psychic readers and intuitive consultants can offer empowering guidance that helps people navigate life's journey with confidence, purpose, and perspective. Whether through phone readings, tarot, or spiritual coaching, we hold space for truth, connection, and transformation.

Our Core Values

To carry out our mission and honour the trust placed in us, we uphold the following core values:

1. Authentic Intuitive Connection

We believe in real, grounded connections. Every interaction is guided by integrity, spiritual clarity, and a genuine desire to support those seeking guidance.

2. Fostering Positive Growth

We view every session as an opportunity to spark positive change. Our readers aim to uplift and guide with compassion, insight, and encouragement.

3. Empowering Individual Potential

At the heart of our work is the belief that each person holds unique strengths and a sacred life path. We're here to help uncover that potential and support the journey forward.

4. Global Compassion and Support

Work With Us

Thanks again for your interest in joining us at Branwell. Before you get started, please take a moment to carefully read through the following guidelines so you're clear on what's involved in offering your services through our platform.

To begin working with us as an independent contractor, we'll need you to return the following completed documents, all these can be done electronically:

- Information sheet
- Biography form
- Signed independent contractor agreement (Branwell copy only)
- A recent, good-quality photo of yourself

Once we've received everything, we'll get in touch to confirm your details and arrange a short test reading with one of our team members. This helps ensure you feel comfortable with the system and that your skills align with the high standard we offer our clients.

Just a friendly reminder—readers working with Branwell are not employees. You'll be engaged as an independent, self-employed contractor, which means you're responsible for managing your own tax, superannuation, and any applicable reporting through the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). We pay your fees as gross income, without deductions, so it's important you're registered for self-employment (a sole trader ABN is usually sufficient).

Depending on your circumstances, you may be eligible to claim deductions related to your home-based work—such as a portion of your electricity, internet, phone, or other related costs. We recommend chatting with a qualified tax agent to make sure you're taking advantage of any available tax benefits.

Before you begin offering readings through our system, you'll be asked to sign your contractor agreement, confirming that you understand your responsibilities as a self-employed professional.

Becoming a Reader

At Branwell, our services operate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. This allows us to offer consistent, high-quality intuitive support to clients whenever they need it most. To help us meet this commitment, we rely on dedicated readers who can contribute to peak coverage times and ensure that every caller receives the care and clarity they're seeking.

A key part of our service model is helping readers build lasting connections with clients. Exceptional readers often develop a loyal base of returning callers, which not only strengthens the quality of service we offer but also increases the reader's earning potential and overall job satisfaction.

What We Look For in Our Readers

We're looking for more than just skills—we're looking for people who genuinely care.

Our ideal readers are:

- Experienced in Psychic or Tarot readings
- You should have a strong intuitive ability and a natural connection with the modalities you use.
- Warm, friendly, and empathic
- Clients come to us in vulnerable moments. Your presence should feel safe, kind, and uplifting.
- Professional in manner and communication
- Clear, confident communication and respectful interactions are key to building trust.
- Self-assured and calm under pressure
- Confidence in your abilities helps clients feel grounded, even during emotional or uncertain moments.
- Reliable and disciplined
- You must be comfortable working independently and committed to upholding Branwell's professional standards and ethical guidelines.
- 18 years or older

Delivering a Quality Experience

Each client is different—and so are the questions they bring. It's important to really listen and respond with insight that is tailored to their needs. Cookie-cutter answers don't serve anyone. The best readers tune in, stay present, and offer intuitive guidance that is thoughtful, honest, and aligned with the client's concerns.

By maintaining high standards and embracing the values of connection, compassion, and integrity, you'll not only make a difference—you'll grow a fulfilling practice that supports others while supporting yourself.

If this sounds like you, we look forward to welcoming you to the Branwell community

Payment and Rates

At Branwell, we strive to ensure transparency and fairness in all aspects of our working relationship with our readers, including how payments are structured and delivered.

Readers are paid per minute of active one-on-one talk time with clients. Your earnings are directly based on the time you spend in genuine consultation—not on your total log-in time. This model rewards readers who engage meaningfully with clients and maintain consistent availability during peak hours. Note: If the call lasts less than 120 seconds (2 minutes) then those minutes will not be paid, as our auto-detection flags this as a forward to voicemail.

Phone Type

Per Minute Rate

Landline	$ 1.00 per talk min
Mobile (Australia, United Kingdom)	$0.95 per talk min
Mobile (New Zealand)	$0.90 per talk min

Rate Adjustments

Branwell reserves the right to adjust reading rates (increase or decrease) at any time. In the event of any change, we will provide at least one week's notice so you have time to review and plan accordingly. All changes will be communicated clearly and fairly.

Payment Schedule

Payments are processed weekly every Friday.

There is no need to manually submit times or session details, as all readings and billing information are automatically captured by our system. Your payment is based entirely on the minutes spent in active one-on-one calls with clients, as tracked by our internal billing platform.

If a public holiday or banking delay affects the standard payment day, your payment will be made on the next available business day.

The working week runs from Friday to Thursday, and you are paid for actual talk time only—not for time logged in without active calls.

Reciprocal Tax Invoice Process

To comply with our taxation and record-keeping obligations:

- A Reciprocal Tax Invoice will be issued to all GST-registered consultants.
- A Reciprocal Invoice will be issued to non-GST registered consultants.

These documents serve as mutual acknowledgement of services provided and fees paid, and should be retained for your own tax records.

Working Hours

At Branwell, all readers operate on set shifts only. Manual logins outside of your rostered hours is available.

Set Shifts

Readers specific specific working hours based on their availability and requirements. Each shift requires a minimum commitment of 4 hours, and all readers must complete at least 16 hours per week (per payment cycle) to remain active on the platform.

Working set shifts allow us to:

- Promote your availability effectively to both new and existing clients by social media and advertising campaigns.
- Ensure consistent service coverage across all time zones
- Provide fair and even call distribution among active readers

Readers who maintain their rostered shift consistently achieve better outcomes, including visibility, more regular clients, and stronger earnings.

Please note:

- Failure to meet your weekly minimum or missing scheduled shifts may result in suspension or removal from the service.
- As an independent contractor, you are responsible for fulfilling your roster commitments as agreed.

Branwell operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, providing readers with ample opportunity to maintain regular shifts and connect with clients across different time zones.

Expectations

As an independent reader contracted with Branwell Pty Ltd, you have the freedom to work in a way that suits your intuitive style. However, all services must be delivered with professionalism, care, and alignment with our standards. The following guidelines are designed to protect both you and the integrity of our business, while also ensuring the highest quality experience for our clients.

1. Prepare Yourself Before Logging In

Before starting your shift, take time to ground and centre yourself. Ensure you are calm, focused, and in the right mindset to support clients with care and clarity. Create a comfortable, quiet environment where you can work without distraction.

2. Maintain Professional Conduct While Online

While logged in and available for readings, you must not eat, browse the internet, read, or engage in other activities that could distract from your service. Multitasking during calls is considered unprofessional and prevents you from offering your full attention to the client.

3. Answer Promptly

Whenever possible, aim to answer calls within three rings. Prompt responses improve the client's experience and help build your reliability as a trusted reader.

4. Maintain Professional Boundaries

To ensure privacy and safety, you must not share any personal contact information with clients. This includes your:

- Full name
- Phone number
- Email address
- Social media accounts
- Website details
- Nicknames or handles used on other platform

This applies to both your recorded introduction and any conversation during your readings.

5. Respect Client and Reader Confidentiality

Do not ask for, accept, or share personal details about callers, yourself, or other readers working with Branwell Pty Ltd. If a client is unhappy with their experience, they should be directed to the official support channel, not your personal contact details. For support or complaints, please refer them to our Reader Helpdesk at 1300 815 508 or use the office contact us located on our website.

6. Underage Callers

Psychic and tarot readings are not permitted for anyone under 18 years of age. If you suspect a caller is underage, you must end the call immediately.

7. Supporting Distressed Callers

If a client is emotionally distressed or requires support outside the scope of an intuitive reading, please refer to Appendix B – External Support for appropriate resources to share with them.

8. Handling Abusive or Inappropriate Behaviour

Should a caller become aggressive, abusive, or behave inappropriately:

- Remain calm and professional.
- Attempt to steer the conversation in a more positive direction.
- If necessary, let them know you will be ending the call.
- Disconnect politely and promptly.
- Report the incident to Branwell support so we can follow up and investigate.

9. Open Communication and Feedback

We value your insights and ideas. If you have suggestions for improving our services, systems, or reader experience, you are always welcome to reach out to our support team by phone or email.

By following these guidelines, you not only protect yourself and the integrity of our platform but also help ensure that every client receives the quality and care they deserve.

- Any form of verbal aggression, harassment, or inappropriate conduct directed toward clients, staff, or fellow readers.
- Exchanging personal information
- Providing or requesting personal details such as names, phone numbers, addresses, email addresses, social media accounts, websites, or aliases used on other platforms.
- Misuse of confidential client content
- Using, sharing, or disclosing any personal or sensitive details from readings, except in cases where there is a serious concern for the caller's wellbeing.

- Promoting outside services or competitors
- Directing clients to other psychic services, platforms, or phone lines not affiliated with Branwell Pty Ltd.
- Knowingly engaging with underage callers
- Speaking with or encouraging interaction with individuals under the age of 18 is strictly prohibited.

- Multiple or serious complaints from callers will be reviewed and may lead to immediate termination, depending on the nature and frequency of the complaints.
- Violation of company or industry regulations
- Any material breach of this manual, platform policies, or the governing industry code of conduct will result in immediate removal from the system.
- Excessive missed calls
- Readers who consistently fail to answer incoming calls may face termination. To maintain system efficiency and client satisfaction, a penalty of AUD $10.00 will be applied for each missed call. Repeated missed calls may also result in suspension or permanent removal from the platform.

Call Handling and Compliance

- Call waiting or voicemail services (such as Telstra 101) must be disabled while you are logged in.
- All calls are recorded and monitored regularly to ensure compliance, quality, and regulatory standards are being upheld.
- We utilise advanced call monitoring AI software to detect everything that may be considered an offence.

Zero Tolerance for Abuse or Bullying

If you experience abusive behaviour, please report it immediately with the time, date, and a brief description so we can take appropriate action. Your safety and wellbeing are our priority.

Email Readings

Responding to Requests via Agent Portal

Branwell now offers clients the opportunity to receive psychic readings by email. These are paid services and must be treated with the same professionalism, and insight, and care as any live reading.

Psychics will receive email reading requests directly through the Agent Portal. It's your responsibility to complete and submit a thoughtful, well-written response in a timely and compassionate manner.

Turnaround Time

All email readings must be completed within 4 days of receipt.

This ensures we meet client expectations and deliver a professional service.

You may complete your email reading during your shift or at any time that suits you best within this timeframe.

Word Count Requirements

- 1-Question Reading - approx. 300-350 words
- 3-Question Reading - approx. 600-650 words

Do not submit under-length responses. These are paid offerings, and the client must receive the full value of what they've purchased.

How to Approach Your Response

1. Prepare and Centre Yourself

Before writing, take a few moments to ground your energy. Treat the request with the same presence you would if the client were on the phone. Use your preferred method - cards, channelling, clairvoyance, etc. - and connect to their energy through the details provided.

2. Use a Clear, Kind, and Empowering Tone

Communicate honestly, respectfully, and without fear-based language. Even if delivering challenging insights, do so in a way that uplifts and empowers. Avoid absolutes like "this will happen" – instead, use intuitive phrasing such as:

- "It appears that..."
- "There is a strong sense of..."
- "You may wish to consider..."

3. Stay Focused on Their Questions

Respond directly to the question(s) asked. Avoid straying too far from the topic, but include any additional insights that support and enrich the guidance, if genuinely intuitive.

4. Maintain Professional Boundaries

- Do not offer legal, financial, or medical advice.
- Do not share or discuss any readings outside the platform.
- Do not contact clients directly outside the Agent Portal.

All responses must be submitted securely through the portal to ensure delivery, client privacy, and record keeping.

Final Note

Email readings are a powerful tool for clients to receive insight in a private, written format they can return to again and again. Take pride in your work—each message you send is a reflection of your energy and the Branwell standard.

Deliver with care. Write with purpose. And always, read with heart.
